

Click on the Events Tab on the discover page to go to your events

There you will see your events. Click on the top list to view the type of events you want, whether it is an upcoming event, events you created and more.

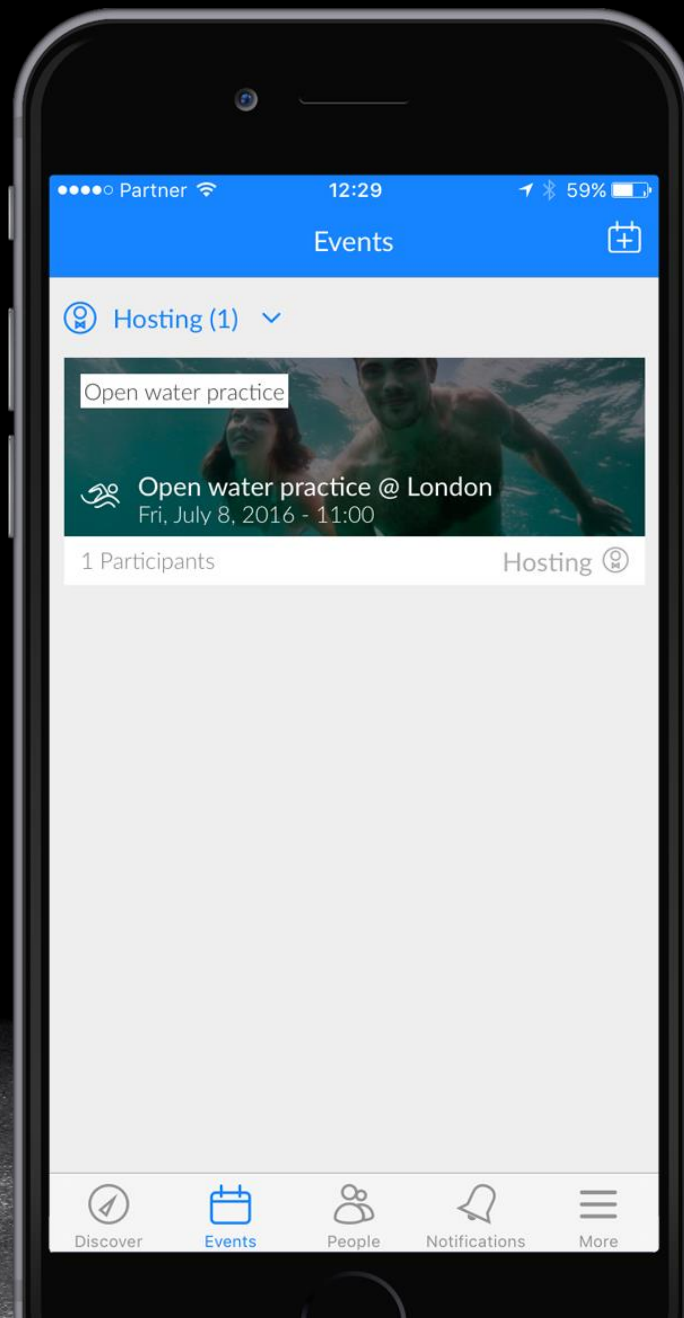

Switch between event types- Upcoming events, Events you are hosting, Saved or pending events & more

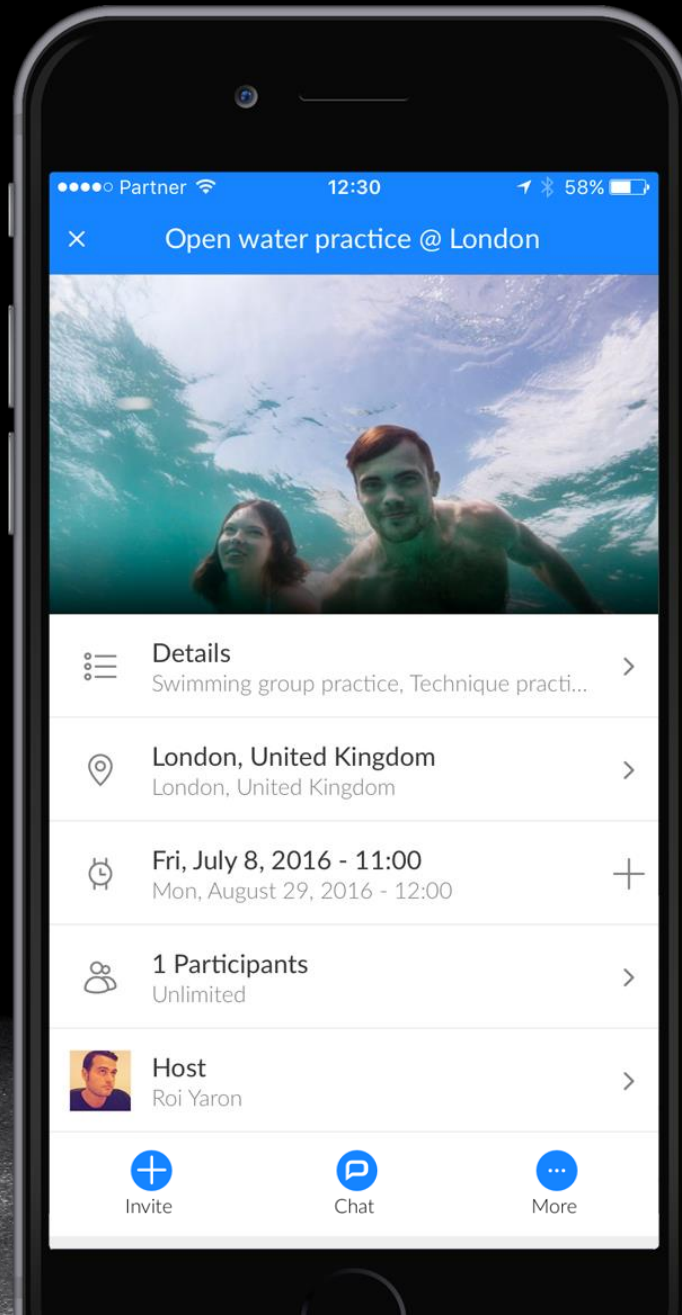

Click on an event to see details of the event, add it to your calendar, See who is coming, Chat with the host or group chat with the other participants or Leave the event.

Click an event you are hosting to edit it

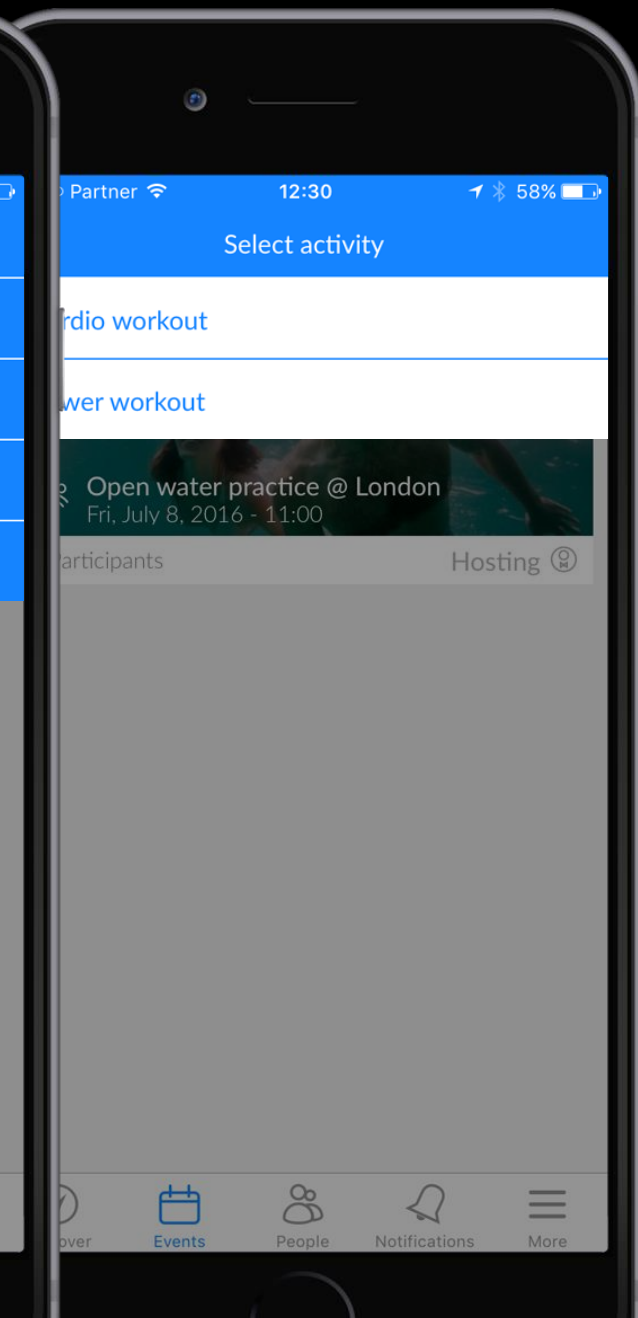

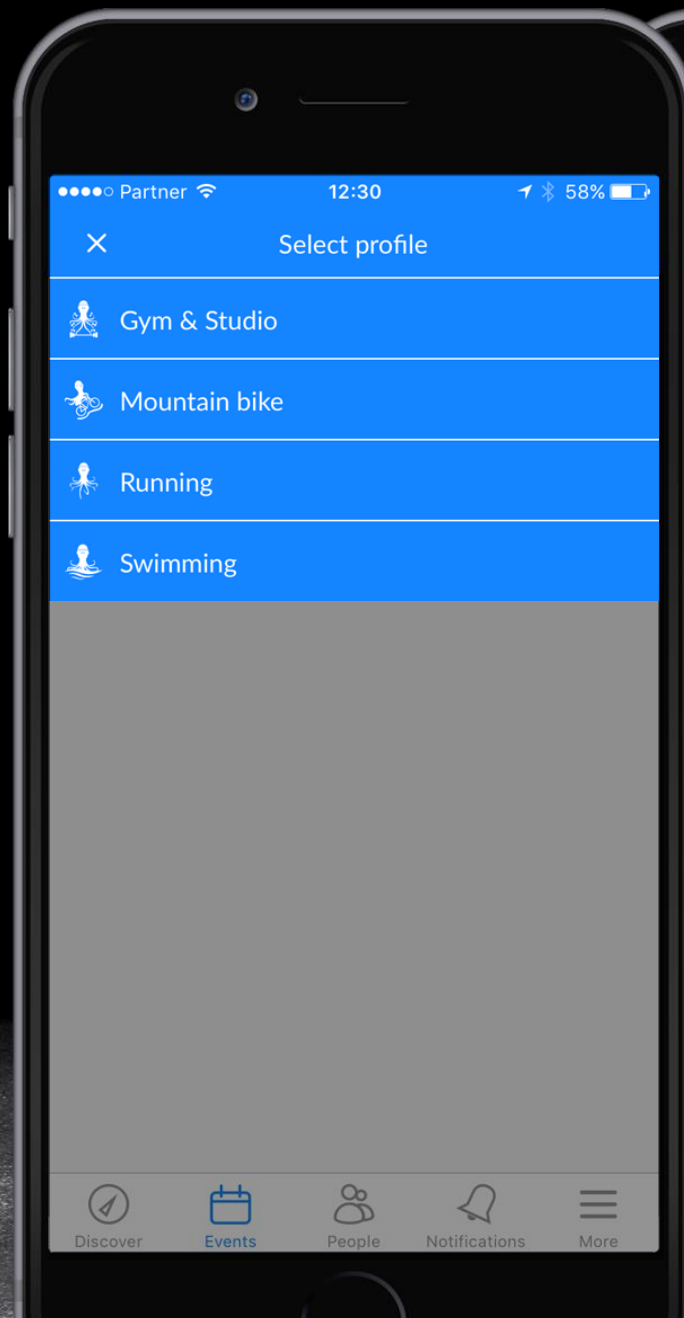

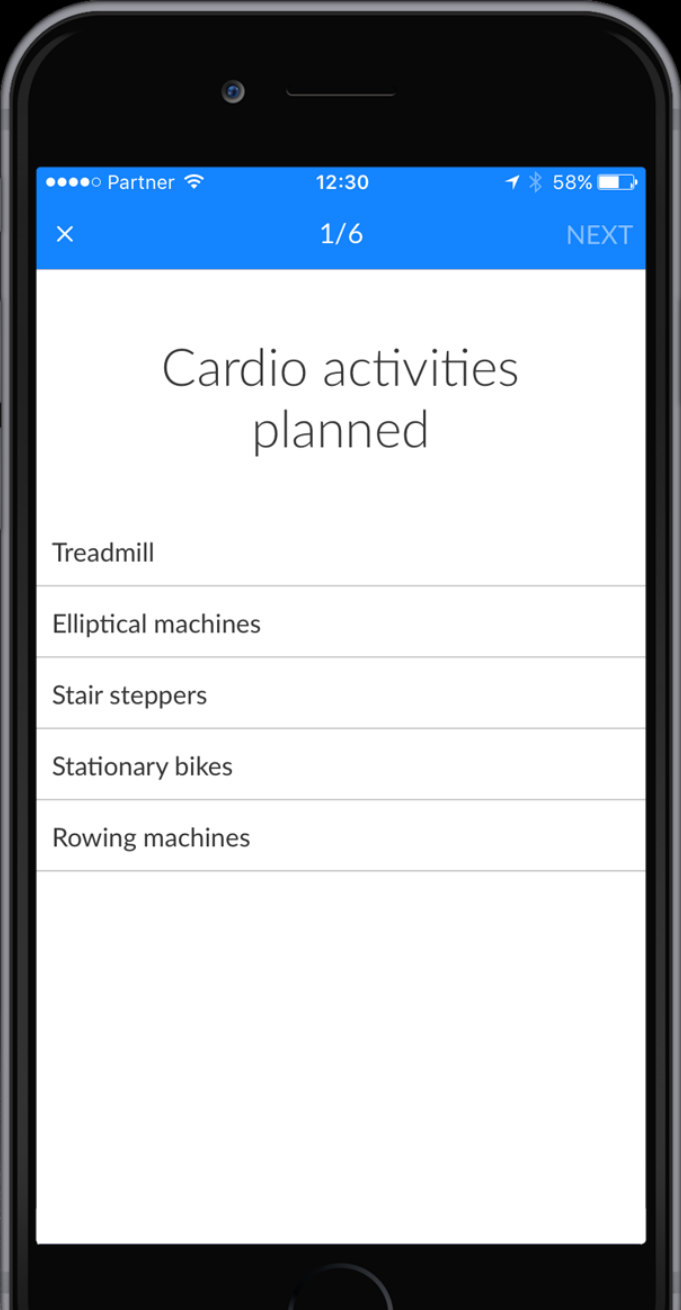

Invite people, Chat with people & more

Click on the more button to edit your event, leave or cancel the event.

Choose the activity you want to create an event for

Start creating the event

- Answer a few questions regarding the event
- Chose the event's location
- Chose the event's schedule.
- You can also click on the repeat option to create recurring events.
- Set the participants settings
- How many people you want in your event
- Privacy of the event

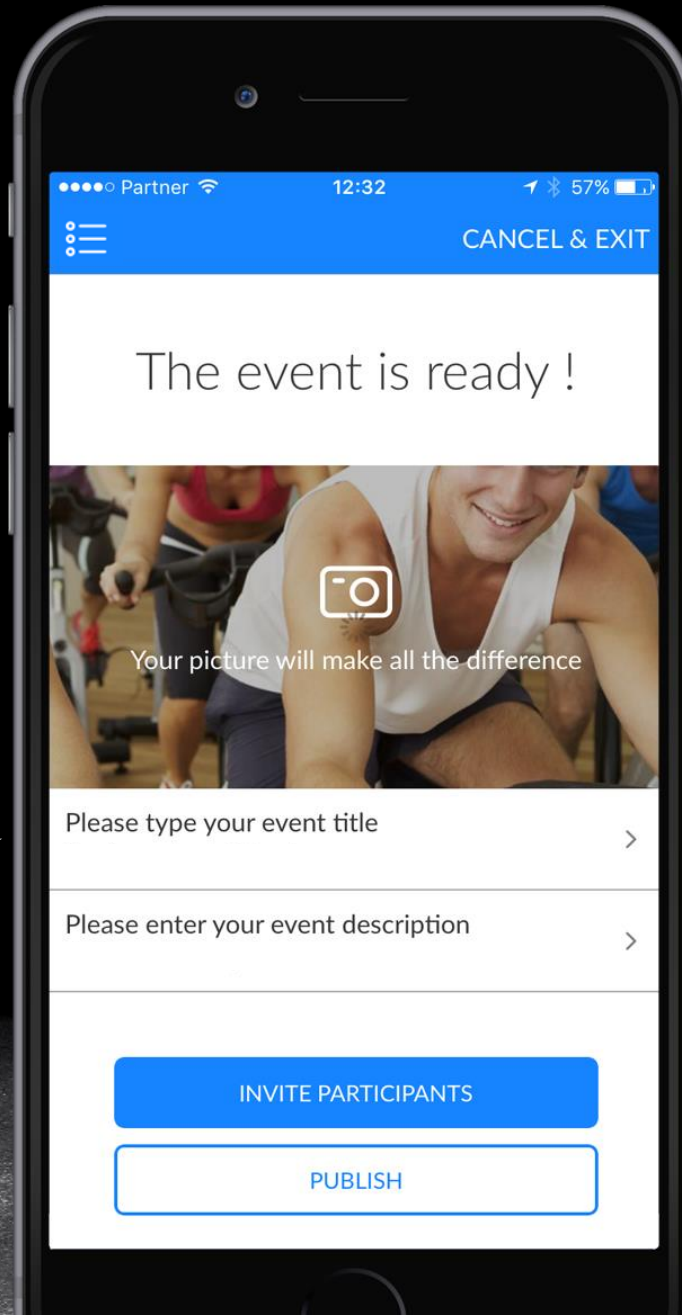

See if you want to add anything else

Get ready to publish the event.
But before you do, you can click on the top left button to edit it.

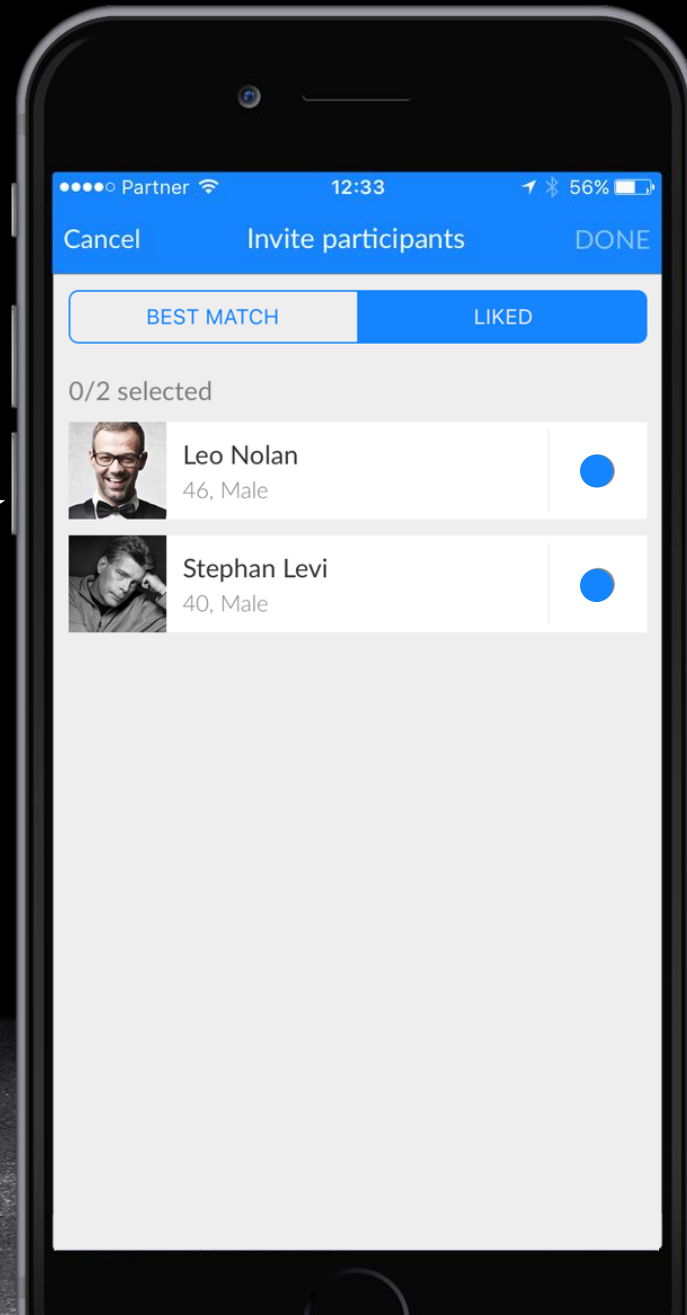

Re-name the event and add a description

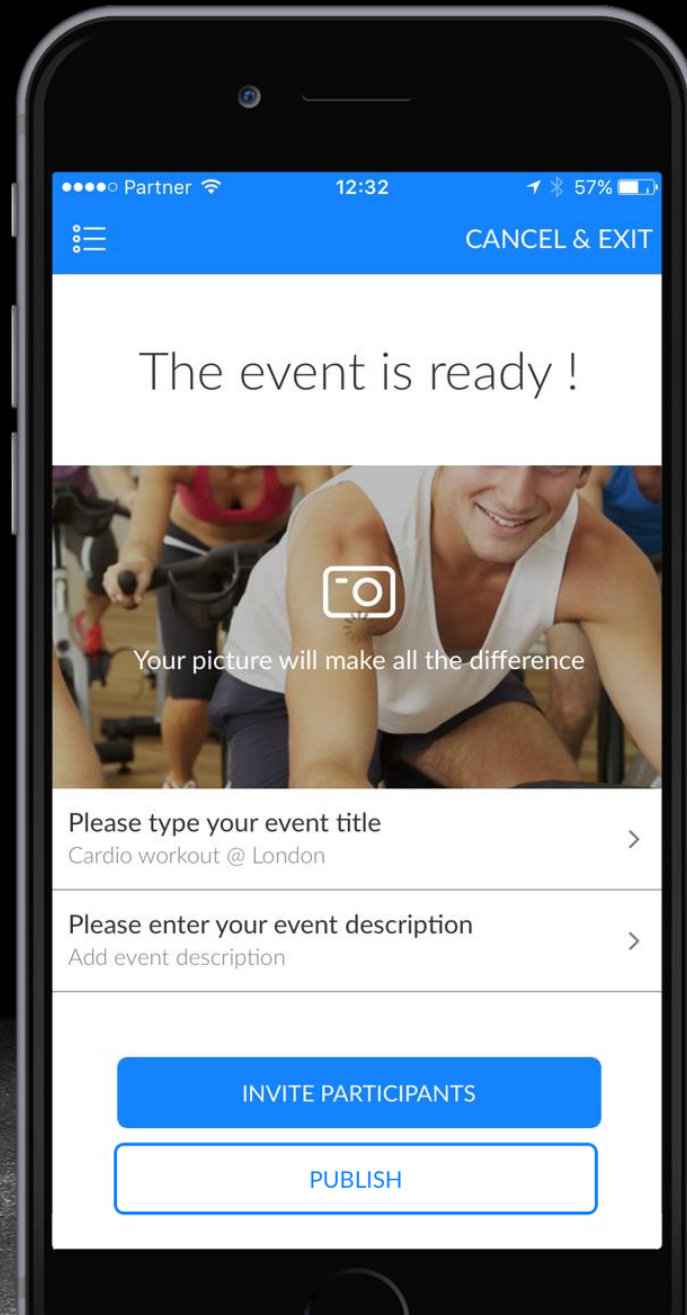

Click on the default image to change it to your own event image.

Invite people to your event

who best match your event profile
Or invite people you liked

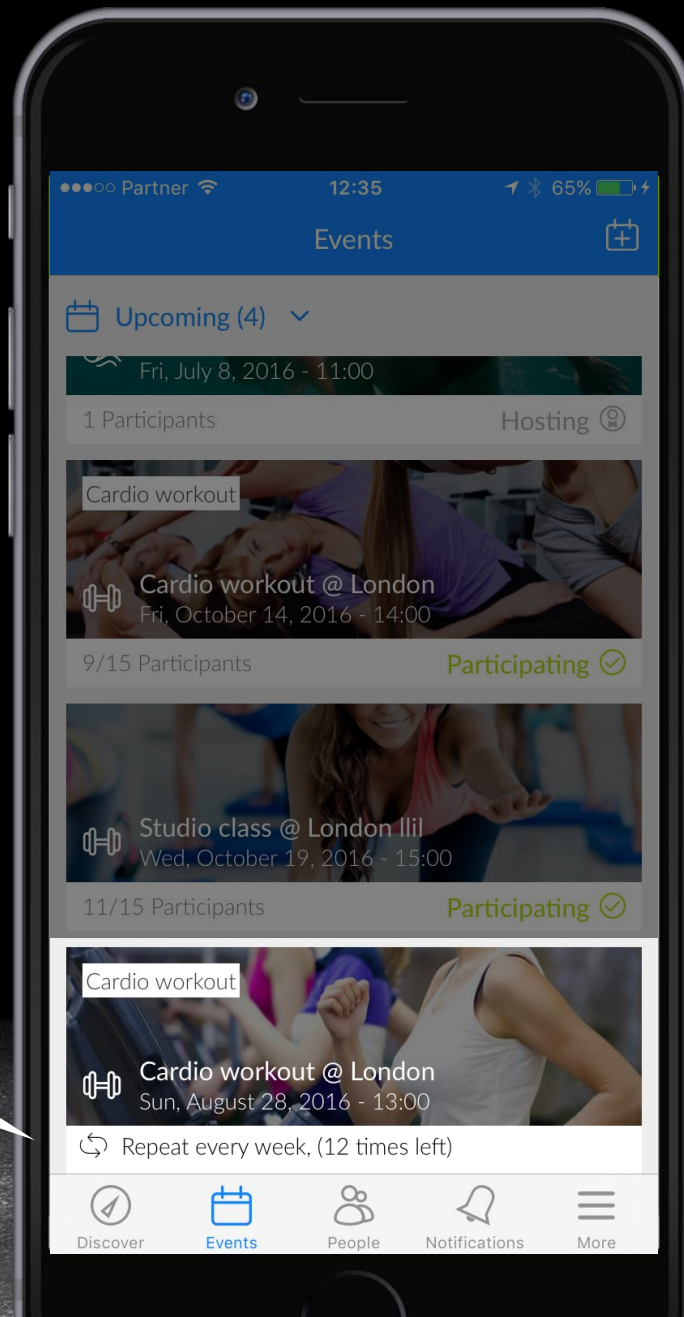

Finally, Click publish to make your event appear in other people discover pages who match your event.

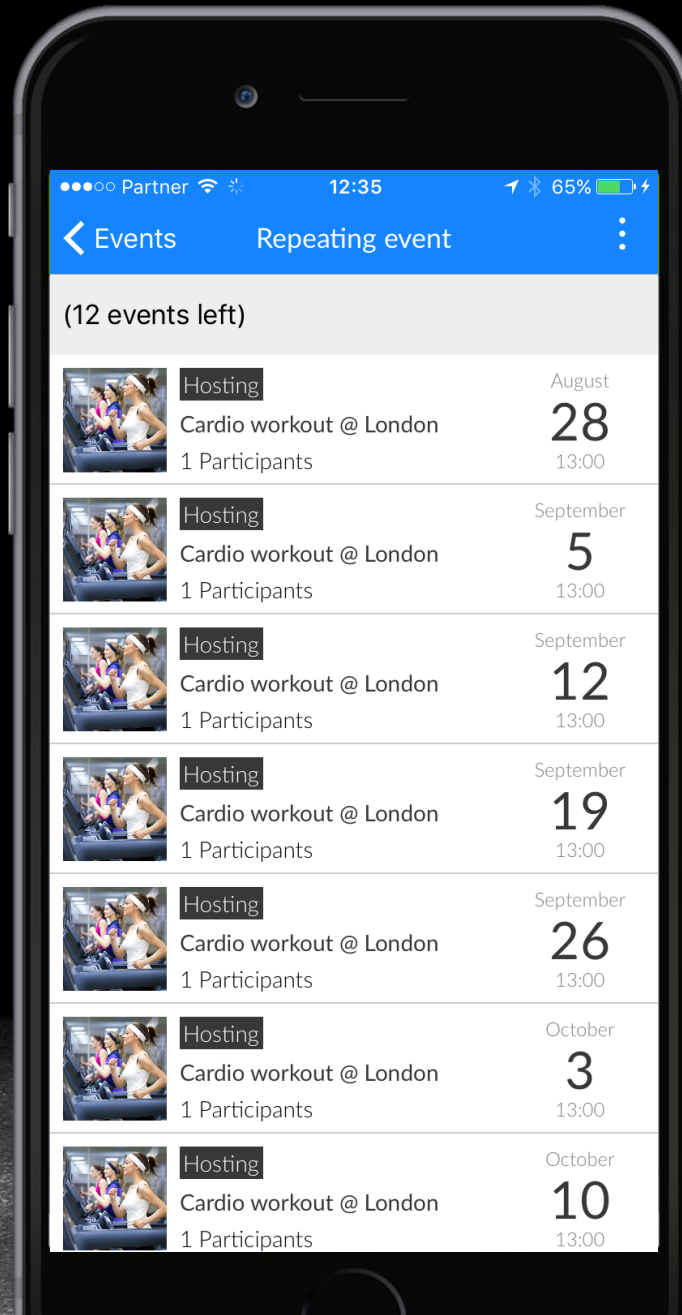

This new event will also be added to your event list under the events tab

Recurring events will appear like this.

When you click on the recurring event you will see a list of all the events that are recurring ★ Click on the first event to edit the entire set or click on an individual event in the list to edit only it.

Powered by:  EveryMatch